BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to her sex, it will be well for her to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you get from its use is not the delusive exhilaration from a tipping beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Seneth Knyon, of 60 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I declared with my family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for me and I was taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart trouble and I had had and much suffering. My heart would almost stand still. I have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment as positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 31 one-cent stamps, or the bare cost of mailing, or send 31 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equaled. They are made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure, food, indigestion, and deranged stomachs. Livers and bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering you a cheap remedy to you instead of this well-known preparation of Dr. Pierce.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newberr's Herculene to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herculene Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weakens, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

The Shackling of Mr. Davis.

Philip A. Fuller, a prominent contractor, of Phoebus, Va., yesterday gave out an interview in which he said that it was his father, the late Philip A. Fuller, who made the shackles and placed them on the ankles of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, while the latter was a prisoner at Fort Monroe.

Mr. Fuller said his father came to Fort Monroe in 1861, and, being a blacksmith, was assigned to the work of repairing gun carriages. When at the fortress sometime he was promoted to a position in the quartermaster's office, where he was working when Jefferson Davis was brought to the fortress.

"One day General Miles sent for my father," continued Mr. Fuller, "and told him that he wanted shackles made and placed upon the wrists of Jefferson Davis. My father went to Mr. Davis and told him of the unpleasant duty to which he had been assigned. Father was so pleasantly struck with Mr. Davis's manners that he thought of refusing to obey the orders, and informed Mr. Davis of his intention.

"Mr. Davis, in reply, said, 'Fuller, you must do your duty. If you don't place the irons on me someone else will.' When the irons were completed father went to Mr. Davis's quarters and told him of his errand. The prisoner offered no objection whatever, but simply stretched out his legs and calmly submitted to the ordeal.

"The statements recently published to the effect that Jefferson Davis put up a fight and knocked down the big, brawny blacksmith who shackled him is without foundation. My father was a small man, and that discredited the big blacksmith detail. In the many times he has related the story to me father has never spoken of Mr. Davis attempting to strike him when he went to shackle him, and he has always spoken in the highest terms of the gentlemanly manners displayed on that occasion by the late President of the Confederacy."

Imprisoned in Locomotive Tank.

Joseph Ollier, a Northwestern Railway fitter, now lies in a Crewe, England, hospital after undergoing a remarkable experience. He was imprisoned in the water-tank of a locomotive and only released when the engine was pulled to pieces and the tank broken. Ollier was repairing the engine, when he discovered something wrong with the water-tank. To get at the weak spot it was necessary for him to work from the inside. With little difficulty he managed to squeeze in through the small aperture of the tank. He worked for a few minutes, and then, to his horror, found that he could not get out. He shouted for help and hammered on the sides of the tank. After a time other workmen came, but all their efforts to drag him out were unavailing. In a little time his efforts at release had exhausted his energies, and he lay in the tank unconscious. An army of mechanics soon pulled the engine apart. The rivets in the tank were loosened very carefully and the parts separated. Ollier was at first thought to be dead, but with the aid of restoratives he came round. He is now in the Railway Hospital.

Crush to See Bull Fight.

The council of State having authorized the resumption of Sunday bull fighting on the ground that it is an art, and that the matadors, toreros, &c., are artists, the national sport was everywhere resumed in Spain yesterday with extraordinary enthusiasm. The occasion was celebrated in Madrid with a corrida, in which six bulls were announced to be killed by Lajarita and Mazzaninotti. There was an enormous demand for tickets which finally reached incredible prices. Many poor persons sold their clothes and furniture to obtain the price of admission. Twenty thousand people crowded the bull ring, and 80,000 who were unable to enter, stood outside to listen to the shouts and howlings. The contests lasted two and one-half hours. Mazzaninotti, who hitherto had been merely a novillero, acquitted himself with such skill that he was proclaimed a matador by his admirers, who carried him on their shoulders in the arena amid a shower of cigars, fans, and other tokens of approval.

Crucified.

On the cross, just as the Saviour died, a fanatic member of the Order of Penitents is reported to have died Friday at Tortos, Las Animas county, Col. Several Trinidad people claim to have been among the eye-witnesses, but they agreed among themselves not to talk for publication. According to the report current at Trinidad, however, the victim was nailed to a cross of his own formation and died in agony that he did not seem to feel, wrought up as he was to a delirium of religious fervor. The story of the crucifixion is vouched for by Henry D. Robinson, of Trinidad, who saw a crowd of Mexicans, who had been eye-witnesses and were discussing the tragic scene. In the old days, so it is said, the carrying out of an actual crucifixion was not uncommon among the Penitents, but it was supposed to have been abandoned long ago, although it is known that the practice of self-torture is still carried out among the members of the order during holy week.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, rest feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case."

Assault and Murder.

The body of Miss Miranda Bricker, aged fifty-five years, who had been criminally assaulted and strangled to death, was found yesterday morning in the rear of the Fairchild home, in Mount Vernon, Ohio, where she had been employed as housemaid. There were evidences of a terrible struggle on the part of the woman, who had been dragged 500 feet from the place where she was first attacked. Persons living in the neighborhood recall that they heard cries during the night, but paid no attention to them. Bloodhounds have been sent for to trail the murderer if possible.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
